School Referendum Tuesday Afternoon to Draw Large Vote

Residents of Dist. 34 Will Weigh $350,000 Bond Issue Quest

Residents of Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 will vote next Tuesday on the proposal to issue $350,000 in bonds to provide additional classroom, shop, and cafeteria space.

The request is based on a projection of increased enrollment which is expected to reach 522 by 1953. It increased from 207 in 1944 to the present 420 of which 16 are tuition students.

The new addition would house eight additional class rooms, a domestic science room, shop room and gym storage room and in addition provide additional cafeteria space. The bond issue will also provide a four-bus garage, sidewalks, and remodeling of the first grade room of the recent addition to provide rooms for the principal and the teachers.

A report distributed by the board of education during the past week sets forth the fact that the district has the third lowest school tax rate in Lake county. The rate is $0.828 with only Gurnee and Winthrop Harbor dropping below that amount.

Bell Company Denied Higher Rates by I.C.C.; Top Executive Replies

The Illinois Commerce commission Monday night refused to grant to the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. its request for an increase in rates amounting to $22,800,000 a year for its 332 communities including Antioch and Lake Villa.

The commission found that the company, even after increased wages and taxes, will earn $23 million in profit in 1952 which is described as a "just and reasonable figure."

Answering the company's contention that it must increase earnings to attract capital for expansion, the commission found that the entire Bell system has been able to increase its capital by $4 billion since 1949 on the basis of the traditional $9 dividend on American Telephone and Telegraph Co. stock to which Illinois Bell contributes.

Termed Strange Decision
John Little, Libertyville, manager of the Bell properties in the North Lake county area quoted Mr. Kahler, president of the company saying:

"This is a strange decision in the face of a $14,000,000 increase in company wage costs alone during the last year-and-a-half. The commission ignores the effect of such increasing costs on Illinois operations. Evidently it is trying 'by order' to put telephone service into a pigeon hole labelled, 'Exempt from Inflation'—unlike other businesses, where higher costs have inescapably brought higher prices for transportation, milk, newspapers, cigarettes, and practically everything else people buy.

"A regulatory body, such as the Illinois Commerce Commission, must be twins. It must protect the public's pocketbook; it must also protect the public's telephone service. In this Order, the public is saved two to three cents a day—that was all we asked for home service. But this Order, if allowed to stand, can have a crippling effect on our ability to serve the public. It can impair our ability to continue, on the present scale, purchases and construction for service expansion and improvement.

Defense Project Cited
"Some 60 national defense projects, which call for expenditures of about $16,000,000 pose a special problem. We will not allow this order to delay these even one day. The military, civil defense, and defense production agencies depend almost exclusively on our properties and skills for their communications needs. And not even the risk of financial instability will slow our efforts in their behalf.

"In time, of course, such a financial strait jacket as the Commission seems intent on fitting on us will cut off, even for national defense purposes, the vital capital dollars which investors must furnish.

"Our specific action in fighting this threat to good telephone service in Illinois will have to be determined from a study of the Order."

State Stations Open; 368 Truckers Fined by Judge Leroy Fritz

Justice of the Peace Leroy Fritz, the Wadsworth grocer, is about the busiest man in Lake County these days in his Newport township court job.

Three weeks ago the state opened up weighing stations north and south of rte. 173 on Skokie highway and Fritz, being the justice of the peace, handles the cases. They average 17 a day and the average fine is $25 the justice of the peace fee is $4.

Judge Fritz is on call 24 hours a day and one day he got but 2 hours and 20 minutes sleep.

On cases involving more than $300 Judge Fritz binds the offenders over to county court.

One case sent up was that of the Hennes Trucking Co. of Milwaukee which was fined $1,100 by Judge Minard D. Hulse. Another case sent up today involving the Allerman Transfer Lines, Miami, Fla., calls for a penalty of $968.20.

For each pound overweight fines ranging from 2 to 6 cents are charged. The higher the bracket of overweight, the higher the fines. There were 368 fines in the first three weeks, and the state will probably get in the neighborhood of $10,000. At this rate Illinois will be reimbursed somewhat for the great damage done to the roads by overloaded trucks.

Northbound trucks are weighed at a station on the east side of rte. 41 north of the Wadsworth road and southbound trucks on the west side just south of the state line. Two thousand truck are weighed in 24 hours.

Antioch High to Play Palatine Here Friday, Bensenville Saturday

Sequoits Lose to Grant H. S. 42 to 35 in a Hard Fought Game

After losing to the second-place Grant Bulldogs here Friday evening 35 to 42 the Antioch Sequoits will turn their attention to two lesser foes this week-end, Palatine and Bensenville.

Palatine will play here tomorrow evening and the Scotsmen will then go to Bensenville Saturday evening. These will be the last games until after the Christmas vacation.

The Sequoits couldn't get going in their game with Grant last week-end. The Antioch boys spent all evening trying to overcome a 10-point advantage they spotted the Bulldogs in the first quarter which ended 14 to 4. They played on even terms the second quarter and the half ended 23 to 14.

The same situation prevailed in the second half with the visitors gaining three more points for a 38 to 25 count. The Sequoits staged a rally and pulled within striking distance when the final shot came.

John Stob, Grant center, was high point man with eight field goals and a foul for 17 points while second was Jim Lumber, Grant forward with 13 points.

Dittmer, Antioch center was high scorer for the Sequoits with 12 points. Floyd, who has led the scoring for Antioch was a marked man and was held to one free throw.

The sophomores were defeated by the Grant sophomores in the preliminary, but in a game Tuesday the freshmen won.

EDITORIAL

The Board of Education of Antioch Consolidated Grade School District number 34, has asked that voters go to the polls Tuesday, Dec. 18, and authorize the board to issue bonds in the amount of $350,000.00, with which to erect an addition to the present building. This amount includes the cost of furnishings and equipment to put the addition into use.

Under the plan, bonds would be retired $5000 in 1954; $10,000 in 1955 and 1956; $15,000 1957 through 1964; $20,000 in 1965 and 1966; $25,000 1967 through 1969; and $30,000 1970 through 1972. Rate of interest on the indebtedness is set at a maximum of 3 per cent, payable semi-annually.

Plans for the new building, as conceived by Ganster and Henninghauser, Waukegan architectural firm, call for the erection of eight new classrooms, a domestic science room for girls, a shop and manual training room for boys, conversion of the present first grade room into offices for the administrative staff, enlargement of the new cafeteria and kitchen, and a new garage to house four buses.

A mimeographed message to voters, prepared by school authorities, has been circulated under the heading "Why an addition to the Antioch Grade School is Needed." Believing that this circular has not been distributed widely enough to acquaint all voters with the issues at stake, and also believing that some clarification of the statements contained therein is desirable, we reproduce it here, in part, with some editorial comment:

"WHY AN ADDITION TO THE ANTIOCH GRADE SCHOOL IS NEEDED"

There are now eleven regular rooms, and one converted storeroom, being used as classrooms in the Antioch Grade School (not counting the Speech Correction classes held in the Teachers' Room). In these eleven rooms, and the one substandard room mentioned above, the school is attempting to carry on a worthwhile educational program for 420 boys and girls of this community.

Mention is made in the circular to the effect that the school district owns the school building formerly used by Oakland school. This building is in need of some small repairs, of a minor nature, and could be used to house two classes. Since bus transportation is already available, why not use this building?

"The school enrollment is growing to such an extent that it will be necessary to have two sections for every grade by late 1952 and early 1953; including Kindergarten, this would call for seventeen classrooms. Thus, considering the fact that we have eleven regular classrooms now, this would mean a need for six additional classrooms within one year. Projecting enrollment figures further, there would be a need for three more rooms by 1955.

"Past, present and future enrollments—all grades:

Year	Enrollment

1945	278
1946	272
1947	273
1948	289
1949	362
1950	356
1951	420
1952	462
1953	522

Flexibility Is the Key

The president of one of the great oil companies recently pointed out that the industry's dominant characteristic, which has made possible its remarkable achievements, is flexibility. Then he said, "In the future flexibility is likely to be more important to us than ever before. The higher levels of demand in prospect can be handled smoothly only if the industry is ever ready for unforeseen problems suddenly presented. Then, too, inherent in the business are intangibles such as weather, which we cannot accurately forecast but which we must anticipate. There are other operating contingencies, common to most industries but of more critical significance, perhaps, in one like ours. All these intangibles make it important that the privately-owned, competitive companies in our industry be left free to build up crude oil reserves and to add the necessary refining, transportation, marketing and storage facilities to go with them."

Various elements within our gigantic bureaucracy would like nothing better than to shackle the oil industry with all kinds of regulations, red-tape, and restrictive laws. The politicians' itch for power seems to grow ever more virulent. The fact that the industry, working in a free enterprise economy, has successfully met staggering increases in demand for oil products is no deterrent to these apostles of more and more government and less and less freedom for the individual. Nor is the fact that when the bureaucrats give the orders, progress stops and stagnation sets in.

Oil's past record is the most powerful argument for maintaining and defending the competitive free enterprise system which made possible its splendid service to the American people in peace and war.

Meat in 1960

Meat—as the world's foremost authorities on diet now emphasize strongly—is vital to the vigor and mental and physical health of the human animal. This is because of meat's high whole-protein content. And meat is one of the very small number of foods which most people can consume with relish and appetite twice or more each day.

Our annual per capita consumption of meat has been around 146 pounds. In 1950 a total of 22,400,000,000 pounds was eaten. It is estimated that by 1960 our population will increase by 20,000,000 people. So, if meat consumption then is to be the same as now, our supply of meat must be raised by 3,000,000,000 pounds, or 13 per cent.

Moreover, it is widely held in medical circles that the desirable per capita level of consumption should be 170 pounds of meat a year. If this level is to be reached in 1960, meat output must increase 6,600,000,000 pounds, or 30 per cent.

That is a goal which all the elements that make up our great meat industry are striving for. And it is a goal which probably can be reached, barring unforeseen complications such as critical crop failures, if the meat producers and packers and distributors are encouraged to do the best possible job and are left free to do it. In other words, it is a job which can be done only in a free market. That was the kind of market which made the very growth and existence of the meat industry possible. It is the kind of market which is undermined—and which may ultimately be destroyed—by systems of economic controls where government calls the tune and everyone must dance to it.

In the long run, a controlled economy is always an economy of scarcity. We have abundance only in a climate of freedom.

Joining the Church

People have shown a tendency to join churches in greater numbers at nine-year intervals, a study of church membership records over the past 120 years indicates. The churches represented by these membership studies include the Presbyterian, both North and South, Methodist, Congregational, and Episcopal. However, it is believed that these cycles apply generally to nearly all Protestant denominations.

Mrs. Warriner, formerly Edna McVey, spent her girlhood at Camp Lake and attended Antioch Township High school and later Northwestern university. She married Dr. Warriner and they established their home at 1015 Victory street. Scores of people in this community have been named for the two. ## School Referendum . . .

serve 200 persons and is now serving 224. The new plan calls for enlarging the cafeteria by 50 per cent and the kitchen by 30 per cent.

It was pointed out that, in event the bond issue is approved by the people at the December 18 election, and the building were to start immediately, it would still not be possible under present conditions to complete the building for occupancy by the opening of school in September 1952, and it no doubt would be 1953 before the new rooms would be available.

"Therefore," the report said, "to take care of the expanding enrollment by September 1952 it will be necessary to open the Oakland school and seek other classroom space within the community to begin the next school year."

The election will be held under the shadow of the possibility that it will be nullified by the unconstitutionality of the Illinois State law.

A friendly suit against the state over the referendum at the Hinsdale school in October sets forth that the election law is faulty in that it does not require the voters to be 21 years of age and citizens of the United States.

The law firm of Chapman and Cutler, Chicago, has advised the school authorities that they may go ahead and take a chance on the validating of the law by the supreme court next March, but until that time no bonds can be sold.

Voting at the grade school Tuesday will be from noon to 7 p. m. The polling place will be in the gymnasium of the grade school.

Opposition to the bond issue developed during the past week not on the basis that more room is not needed but that the program is too ambitious for the requirements of the school, and it is believed that the voting will be close.

The board of education recently contracted with the bond house, Barcus and Kindred, Chicago, lowest of three bidders for the purchase of the $350,000 worth of bonds.

Under the contract the bond house bears all expenses of the election, win or lose, the attorney fees, legal notices, and other expenses, print the bonds and sell them.

Barcus and Kindred agrees to guarantee 2 1/2 per cent on the bonds for the first five years and 2 3/4 per cent on the issuance for the remaining 15 years of the 20-year period.

This would mean the district will have to pay 2 1/2 per cent on $55,000 and 2 3/4 per cent on the remaining $295,000. The bond company may sell the bonds at as low a rate as it can and keep the rest. If, for example it would sell the bonds at 2 1/4 per cent it would gross $16,125 from which would come expenses. On the other hand if it cannot sell them for the amount guaranteed the district it stands to lose that amount plus the expense.

Serving at the polling place will be Mrs. Glenn McNeal, clerk; Mrs. Donald Stowe and Mrs. Arthur Wertz, judges.

EDITORIAL

school and none of them are exact. The board has, apparently, based its figures on past performance alone. These figures show an apparent gain of about 50 pupils a year. We believe these projected figures to be faulty for several reasons, namely, in that they do not take into consideration the fact that during the period for which enrollment figures are shown, two outside districts were absorbed. This alone would show a distorted picture of future enrollments.

In addition, we are in the particular period when the greatly accelerated birth rate prevalent during war time is beginning to show up in school enrollment.

Figures on future enrollment at Antioch High school, a result of an exhaustive study on county birth rates, migration trends, and many other factors, released last year, show that the high school gain in students yearly will amount to about 60 per year. Antioch grade school graduates accounted for 27 per cent of these new high school students which would indicate that 15 to 20 is a more nearly correct figure than the 50 claimed by the circular.

The figures above do not allow for the transfer of many of the kindergarten pupils to St. Peter's school for first grade. St. Peter's school expects an enrollment of about fifty in first grade for next year, and surely a number of these are now enrolled in kindergarten at Antioch Grade school.

If the board intends to continue to absorb outside districts as the projected figures would seem to indicate, is it up to the district as it presently stands to prepare and pay for a building to educate children of districts which are not yet a part of District 34 and may never be?

"COST OF NEW ADDITION"

"The estimated cost of providing these facilities and equipment is $350,000, the interest rate to be 2 1/2 per cent for the first 5 maturities, and 2 3/4 per cent for the remaining 15 years of a 20-year bond issue. On the present assessed valuation of $11,713,407, each $100 of assessed valuation would need to provide .205, or a rate of $2.05 for each $1000 assessed valuation. Thus, property assessed at $6000 would need to pay $12.30 per year, or $1.02 per month, to pay for this issue.

"The following is a breakdown of costs submitted by Ganster and Hennighausen, Architects:

19,754 sq. ft. @ $15.00 sq. ft.	$296,000.00
A & E Contract @ 6 per cent	17,760.00
Equipment	12,000.00
Cafeteria Expansion	22,240.00
Drives and Walks	2,000.00

$350,000.00"

The above calculation of the cost of the addition shows what the building and equipment will cost in tax dollars, but does not mention the increased cost of operating a larger school. With an abundance of room, it seems fairly certain that classes will be cut to minimum size and that many more teachers will be needed. The present cost of the educational fund is about $78,000 annually, provided by a rate of $8.05 per $1000 assessed valuation. Certainly the cost of maintaining 22 rooms will make it necessary to raise the levy for educational purposes to the legal limit of $9.00. This added to the $1.62 now being paid, and the proposed $2.05 could bring the tax rate for the school to $12.67 per $1000, instead of the $8.28 now being paid. Thus the tax on a $6000 home could be as much as $76.02 for Antioch Grade school alone.

In this era of rapidly rising taxation, we feel that only the most necessary public expenditures are desirable, and that while the school is in need of additional space, and must have it if a passable educational job is to be done, that the present plan is too ambitious, and that a great part of the expense is unnecessary.

With federal defense spending taking an ever increasing part of the national income, this is a time to concentrate on defense of our country, and to try to keep public spending in other fields to a minimum.

The serving of noon meals at the school is a very much worthwhile feature, but it seems that a cafeteria which will seat 200 is large enough to handle any foreseeable enrollment. Our experience with children leads us to believe that a youngster takes very little time to eat his lunch, especially if he wants to get out and play. Why not provide for several shifts and save $25,000?

We are heartily in accord with the recent view in education that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and that some amount of sugar coating must be given with the educational "pill," but we also believe that too much emphasis on athletics, handicraft, shop work, cookery and kindred things, tend to allow less time for the main business at hand—that of ELEMENTARY education.

All the knowledge of the world is stored between the pages of books—it is there for the taking—but without the ability to read well, to gain intelligence from the printed page, any child begins life with a terrific handicap. Can skill with tools gained in grade school shop classes, or skill at domestic arts take the place of reading, writing or arithmetic?

We urge that all voters visit the polls next Tuesday, December 18th, and express their wishes in this matter.

Reginald L. Palmer, 64 Dies Unexpectedly at Residence in Ingleside

Deep Lake Women Plan Christmas Celebration; Party, too, for Children

The women's auxiliary of the Deep Lake Improvement association is looking forward to a well-deserved relaxing of formality and business at its meeting next Monday evening, Dec. 17, at Henning Johnson's resort.

This group has met every month for four years in sewing bandages and dressings for cancer sufferers who request this service. They work through the Lake County Cancer clinic in Waukegan, and have often been commended for their untiring efforts to carry on the work through all seasons.

The auxiliary will sponsor a party for children of Deep Lake residents on Dec. 27. Mrs. Harry Swanson is chairman in charge, and if last year's party is any criterion, the children will have a mighty big time.

what to give a cow for Christmas!

(Dairymen, too!)

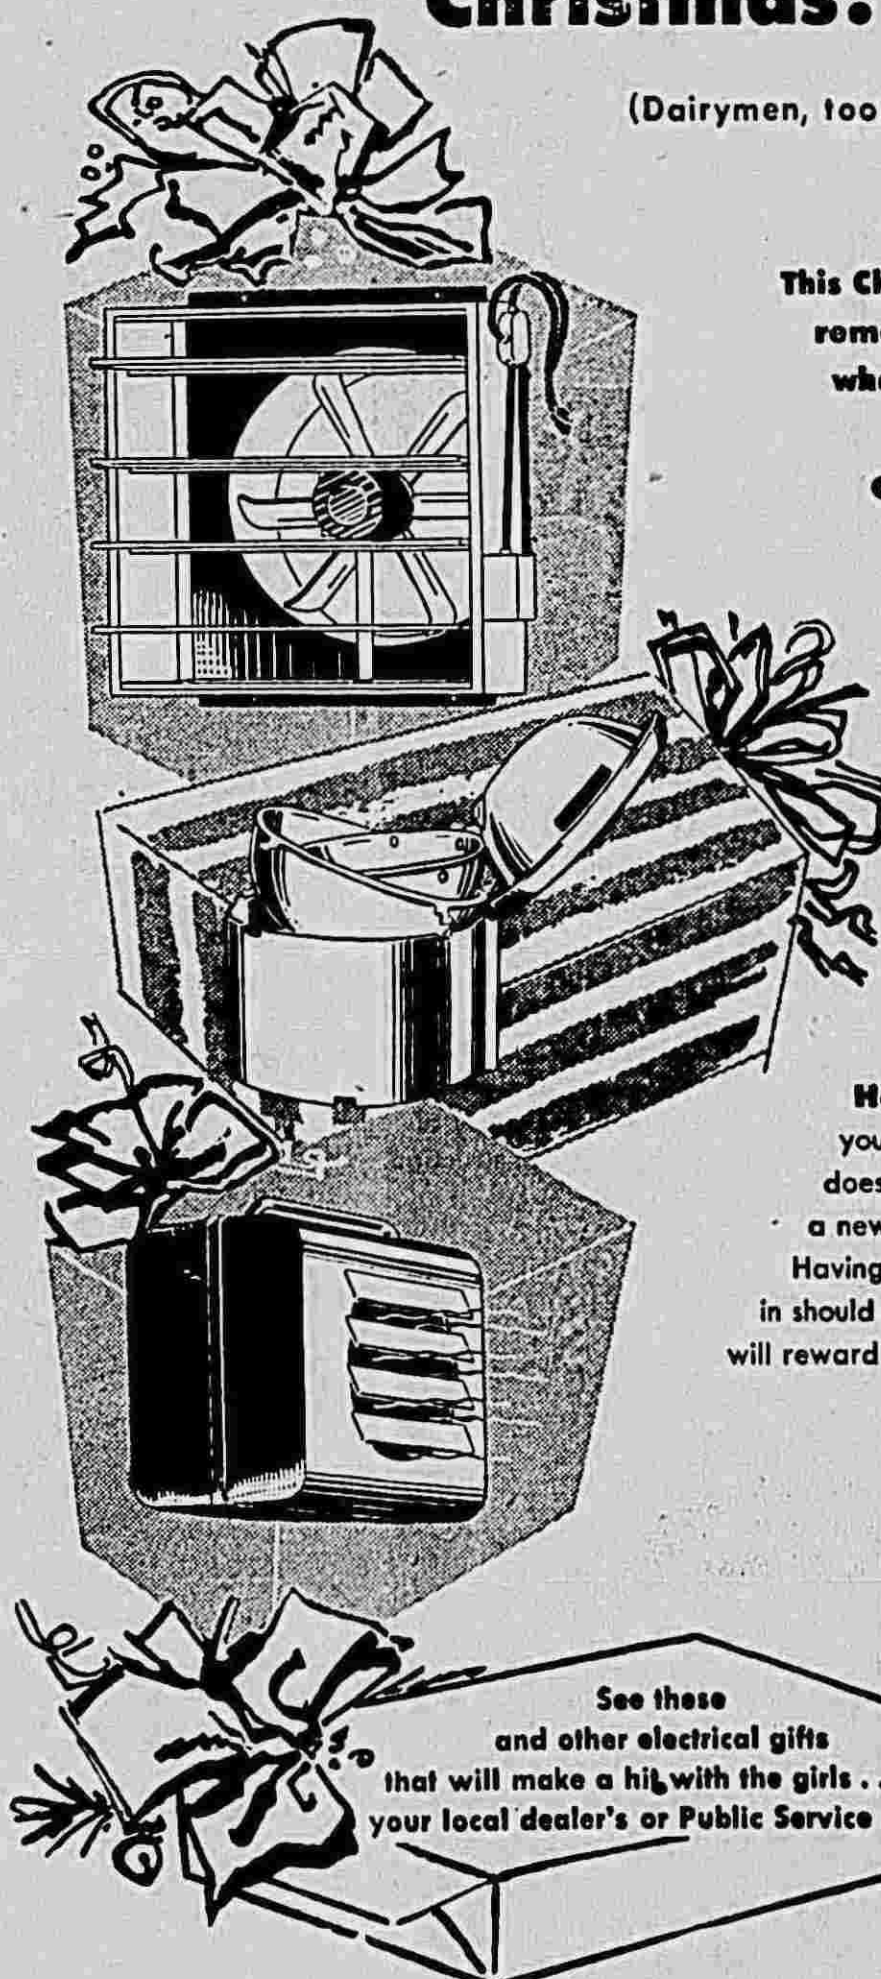

This Christmas
remember the girls who give all year long!

Our men in the field report that your lady friends would love an airy boudoir... so give them a barn ventilating system. Every woman likes the soft caress of a breeze rippling her hair, and because she's proud of her home, she'll like the fresher, drier apartment that barn ventilating will give her.

Give her an electrically heated automatic waterer... and she'll make cow eyes at you! A girl can do her best when she has lots of fresh water right there when she wants it. And she hates to see you working so hard... letting her in and out to drink and hacking through the ice on the watering trough.

Here's a suggestion she gave us herself... she hopes you'll "warm up" to the idea of a milk house heater. She doesn't want to tell you, but it seems you have a new nickname out in the barn... Old icyfingers! Having a comfortable milk house to work in should cure this trouble... and the girls will reward you with nice warm smiles.

See these and other electrical gifts that will make a hit with the girls... at your local dealer's or Public Service store.

Cooking

Cooking in Ancient China was "a fine art." A banquet was not complete without the 'five flavors,' the sweet and sour, the salty and spicy, and the bitter. A dinner began with fruit and sweets, and ended with soup and rice."
